The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1	Special Condition #20: You shall have no contact with any child under the age of 18, without the presence of an adult and approved in advance by the supervising officer. You shall immediately report any unauthorized with minor-aged children to the supervising officer. Supporting Evidence: Mr. Eaglebear violated his conditions of supervised release in Spokane, Washington, by having contact with minor-aged children on or about November 20, 2015. On November 20, 2015, the undersigned officer and U.S. probation officer (USPO) Hansen made contact with Mr. Eaglebear by telephone to schedule a home visit. Mr. Eaglebear reported he was just leaving his residence to pick up his paycheck, but would be home in a few hours. The undersigned officer and USPO Hansen arrived at the residence and observed two minor-aged females in the driveway of Mr. Eaglebear's residence. Both of the minor-aged females advised the undersigned officer that they do not live at the residence; however, one of the girls indicated that her dad lives there, and is Mr. Eaglebear's roommate. The minor-aged girl reported to the undersigned officer that she stays with her dad at the residence every other weekend and that she knows Mr. Eaglebear. Contact was made at the residence and two minor-aged boys and two adults were inside. One of the adults indicated that she was the roommate's sister and they had stayed the night. Mr. Eaglebear arrived home shortly after.
